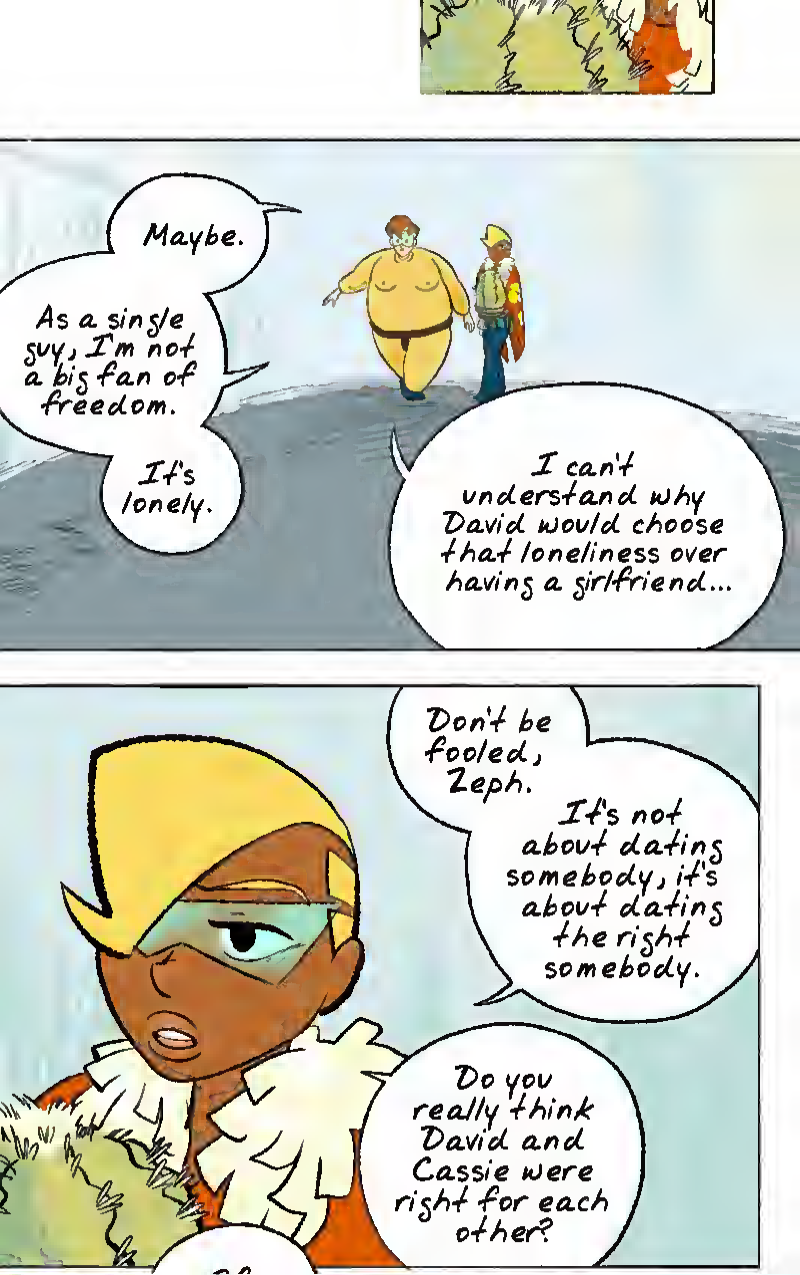
David and Cassie broke up.
Really?
Yeah...

What happened?
David said he sort of reached a breaking point and couldn't go on anymore.
Wow.

Good for him.
Actually, he's totally broken up about it...
He says he feels terrible for how he ended things.
He'll feel better once he gets a taste of his newfound freedom.



Maybe.
As a single guy, I'm not a big fan of freedom.
It's lonely.
I can't understand why David would choose that loneliness over having a girlfriend...
Don't be fooled, Zeph.
It's not about dating somebody, it's about dating the right somebody.
Do you really think David and Cassie were right for each other?

Of course!
I mean, they had issues but I think it could have worked out!
Hmmm.
Well, I guess we'll have to agree to disagree.
Hey, can you hold this?
I feel a sneeze coming on...

What?
No, no, no!
If'll pop my sumo suit!
Zeph!
Just grab it for a second!
PLEASE!

AcHoOo!

Sniff.
Thank you.
Why do you have a cactus, anyway?
It's for club.

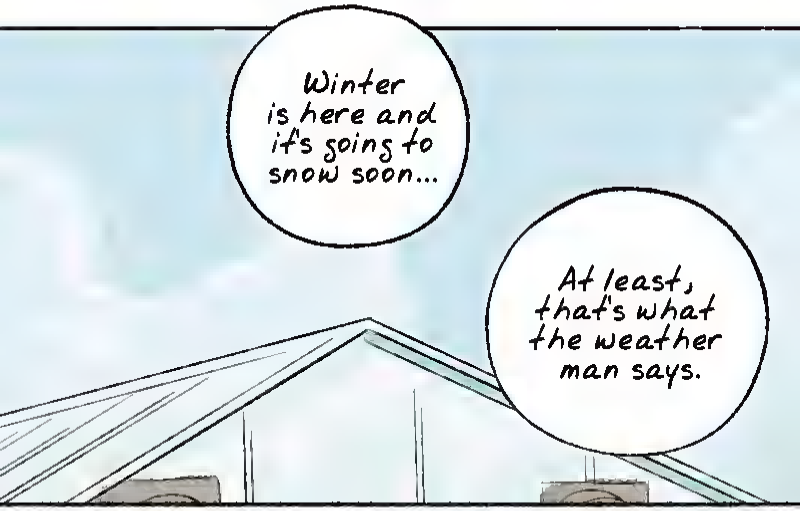
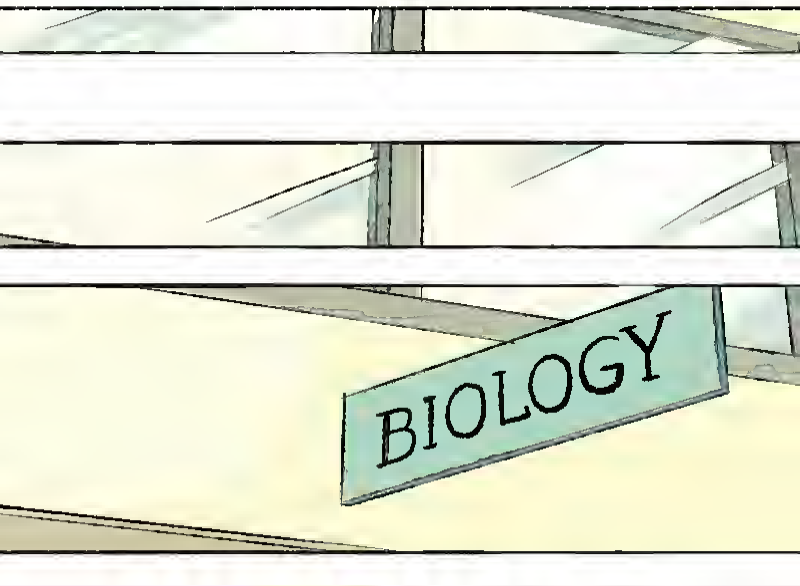
I have to move all our desert plants into the green house so they don't freeze.



Winter is here and it's going to snow soon...
At least, that's what the weather man says.

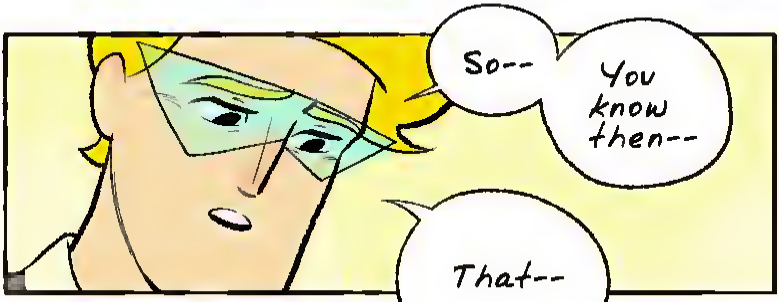


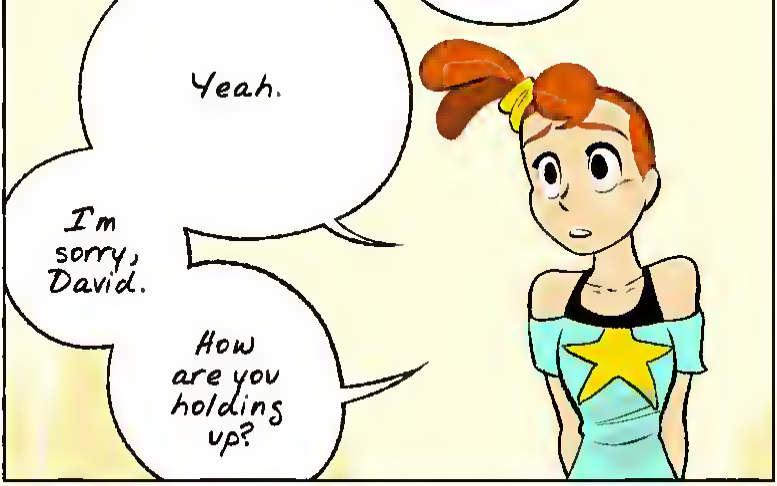
BIOLOGY

Hey.
Amy, you startled me.
I thought you were

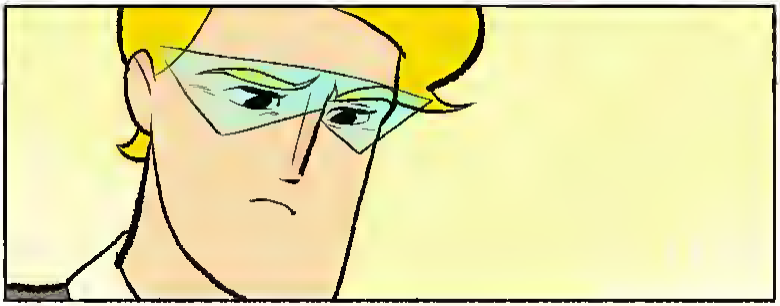
Cassie for a second.

Those are her clothes, right?



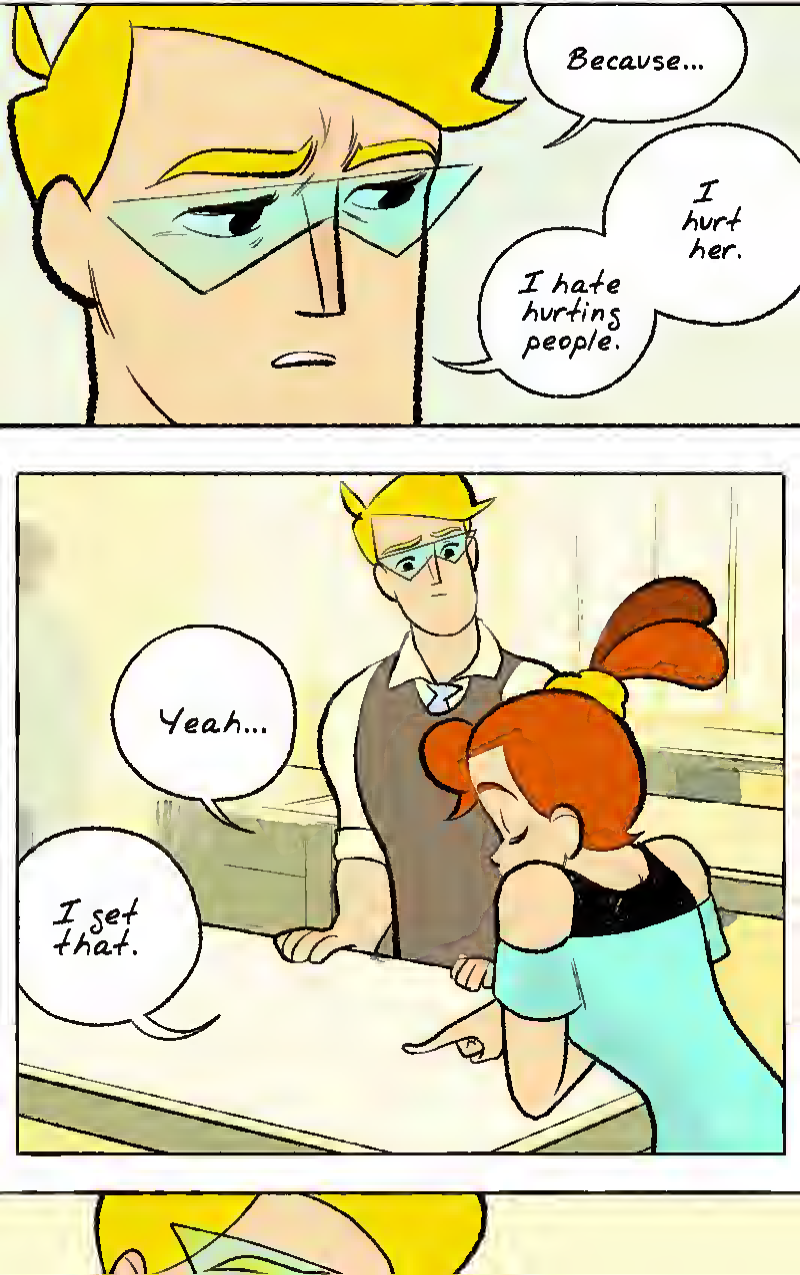


Yeah.
I'm sorry, David.
How are you holding up?



I feel bad, but--
--also relieved.
But I also feel bad for feeling relieved.

Why?



Becavse...
I hurt her.
I hate hurting people.
Yeah...
I set that.

How are you doing, Amy?
In light of all this?
ha
I'm okay.
I was worried at first--

You guys have been the center of my social group since I got here and I thought I might have to pick sides and lose friends.
But I'm a stubborn person when it comes to friends.
People may let go of me, but I don't let go of them.
So--
...you're not mad at me?

Of course not!
Why would you think that?

"i've been thinking about Amy's pigtails a lot. So i tried to draw her, with and without her pigtails, i imagine she'd have a beautiful tiny curls below since she always tied it up."
